

Group To Protest BET CEO

*Determined to stop the entertainment industry from portraying negative images of black men and women, the “Enough is Enough!” Campaign will hold its first rally and demonstration at the Washington D.C. residence of Debra L. Lee, Chairman and CEO, Black Entertainment Television Networks on Saturday, Sept. 15 at 1 p.m.

Rev. Delman L. Coates, Ph.D. has organized this effort, aimed at combating the commercialization and marketing of negative and derogatory images of black men and women in the entertainment industry.
