

Soul and Funk Artists G&D Announce Nation-wide Album Release Events

(September 20, 2007 Brooklyn, NY) San Francisco-based record label, Look Records will celebrate the release of pioneering musicians G&D's upcoming album, The Message Uni Versa, by throwing listening parties across the country. Beginning in Chicago on Tuesday September 25th and ending in San Diego October 13th, these 10 listening parties span the entire contiguous United States. DJ's from across the nation will be hosting the parties with G&D making a special appearance at the San Diego party with an official "meet n' greet" at Dream House.

G&D is music made by Georgia Anne Muldrow and Dudley "Declaime" Perkins, inspired by soul, funk, and hip-hop. Their album The Message Uni Versa, out on September 25th on Look Records, is a spiritual message of hope, light, and love, loaded with bounce and funk.
