

Jay-Z Dedicates Concert To Kanye West

The hip hop mogul and mentor of rapper Kanye West was near the end of a two-hour concert in support of his new album “American Gangster” when he asked for a moment of silence to mark the passing of West’s mother, Dr. Donda West. read more
