

Kidz In The Hall's "Driving Down The Block" Video Debuts at #6 on MTV's TRL

Congratulations are in order for Kidz In The Hall. Just FIVE days since the premiere of their "DRIVING DOWN THE BLOCK" video on MTV's TRL, the duo has secured the #6 slot on the countdown in front of artists like CHRIS BROWN, DANITY KANE and PANIC AT THE DISCO.

On the heels of their critically acclaimed new release, "THE IN CROWD," available at iTunes now and in stores May 13th, these ivy Leaguers are graduating into a space few Indie Artists ever see the light of. Kidz In The Hall's manager Dan Solomito comments "I am happy to report that after only 5 days since the premier, Kidz In The Hall's video for the single "Drivin Down The Block" jumped from not being in the countdown to #6 in front of artists like Chris Brown, Danity Kane, and Panic At The Disco!!!!!! This is remarkable news but we're not content. Lets get it to number #1, and show the world that independent music is alive and kicking!! Here's the link, please GO VOTE!!! You can vote as many times as you want!! And thanks again for the continued support."
