

iHipHop.com & Murs Present...Murs Tour Diary #1: “Murs On The Road With iHipHop”

Hot on the heels of the recent announcement of the sponsorship/partnership between burgeoning new media monolith ihiphop.com and revered rising star emcee Murs, ihiphop.com and Murs present the first of six tour diary webisodes entitled: “Murs on the road with ihiphop.”

The tour supporting Murs’ latest LP, “Murs For President,” kicked off Tuesday, October 7th in San Francisco at the Independent Theater. The first tour diary webisode captures the thrill of the launch and gets up close and personal in the environment that Murs inhabits when not on stage—the tour bus.

Murs is truly a unique artist; only so many can show off their “Nerd 500” skills on Xbox 360’s “Soul Caliber” while relaying stories about bedding down chicks in the same breath.

Stay tuned for the second installment next week...the 2 month tour and ihiphop’s tour diary coverage is just getting started!!!!
