

Official Statement From The CEO's Of Cash Money Records

Cash Money Records CEOs Ronald "Slim" Williams and Bryan "Baby" Williams issued a statement soon after Lil Wayne received four Grammys. "The Cash Money family is thrilled with Lil Wayne's triumph at the Grammys. We are an independent label and this recognition is validation of all of our hard work over the last 20 years. To go from selling records out of our cars more than a decade ago to having the number one selling and Grammy winning artist, it is really hard to express how much pride we feel at this moment."
