With 25 years of experience under his belt, Rouse is known for the former Ten20 Night Scene and the Brasserie on the Sunset Strip which he booked for years, in addition to several hot spots in the Bay Area. He also currently hosts and promotes jazz nights at the historic Biltmore Hotel in downtown Los Angeles. “‘Live on Wilshire’ is the perfect venue to unwind mid-week. Wednesday is Hump Day and ‘Live on Wilshire’ is the antidote!” states Rouse. “You never know who you may see or who might perform. It’s definitely going to be a night for the grown and the sexy!”

Defining the true essence of ‘opus’ – “Live at Wilshire” will be a composition that folks will hum about all week long.

VIP seating is available with bottle service. Attire is casual to upscale. “Live on Wilshire” begins Wednesday May 6 and every Wednesday thereafter.
