

Usher Speaks About Michael Jackson Tribute

Although people are having fun trashing Usher because of his AllStar Weekend performance he gets credit for performing at MJ's memorial and recognizing the power of MJ as an entertainer. Usher was able to pay tribute to MJ, he shared the stage with James Brown and he went to Luther's funeral. Unlike other entertainers who may have seen these situations as selfish publicity opportunities Usher really loves the music and understand the importance of his elders. Now if he could just make his fans happy again.
