Faith Evans has made it no secret how influential El DeBarge has been on her artistry. Here they work together in the studio on their duet “Lay With You” from his forthcoming Second Chance album out November 30th. It’s cool to see Faith singing over the “Stay With Me” while the creator of the song plays the piano. The two Geminis have created two solid R&B records this year. This had to be a dream come true for Ms. Evans.
