

Johnny Polygon “Wolf In Cheap Clothing EP” | Presented by DJBooth.net & 2DopeBoyz

Emcee/singer Johnny Polygon has joined forces with DJBooth.net & 2Dopeboyz for the release of his highly anticipated new EP, Wolf In Cheap Clothing. The EP is out today.

Johnny decided to go the independent route as a salute to the dying music business and the rebirth of a new one. His new EP Wolf In Cheap Clothing is the first batch of new music from Johnny since his critically acclaimed Rebel Without Applause which was called by XXLMag.com as “one of the more stellar releases this year.” The EP has straight club bangers, college pre-gaming jams and even some soaring pop love songs thrown in for good measure. Johnny doesn’t take himself too seriously and this EP delivers church giggles and hilarious one liners more than a few times. Maybe it’s because Johnny was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma? Listen for yourself.
