

Kickmag's 2010 Picks

[youtube]1bk8s7JpKv0[/youtube]

Hip-hop taken into the realms of soul and rock to create something different.

1. The Roots How I Got Over

[youtube]OMGd3mAfl-0[/youtube]

Sons of Olu Dara and Bob reach a common ground with an Afro-Diasporic sensibility.

2. Nas and Damian Marley Distant Relatives

[youtube]pvB1FYVDdng[/youtube]

Best R&B debut of the year.

3. Avery Sunshine

[youtube]gmKAYM2xqPA[/youtube]

Natalie Stewart's sensual solo piece is a keeper.

4. The Floacist The Floacist Presents Floetic Soul

[youtube]880s5Y5LD20&[/youtube]

A mighty return from one of the most underrated artists in the industry.

5. Faith Evans Something About Faith

[youtube]P5SkR5NkG0U[/youtube]

The better end of commercial rap.

6. Rick Ross Teflon Don

[youtube]phzHbzMu7E4[/youtube]

The dynamic duo once again.

7. Reflection Eternal Revolutions Per Minute

[youtube]3WL-J0uo7_Y[/youtube]

The producer/rapper continues to push himself.

8. Kanye West My Beautiful Dark Twisted Fantasy

[youtube]XGXxvtc7BXU[/youtube]

Three chocolate souls embarking on a dance music trip fused with hip-hop and pop.

9. Dirty Money Last Train To Paris

[youtube]UBhdIcb84Hw[/youtube]

Artistic honesty bred a hit and good full-length collection.

10. Cee-Lo Green The Lady Killer

[youtube]CBhw5FUBHY8[/youtube]

A real comeback from a classic singer.

11. El DeBarge Second Chance

[youtube]2VUsJQzCDG0[/youtube]

A return to soul and harder beats a la Subject.

12. Dwele W.ants W.orld W.omen

[youtube]pwnefUaKCbc[/youtube]

Afro-Futurist R&B rock star.

13. Janelle Monae The ArchAndroid

[youtube]ZbAKKTL1Vj4[/youtube]

A reminder of when the female emcee was just an emcee.

14. Rah Digga Classic