

DJ Revolution Introduces Ground-Breaking Duo Malcolm & Martin

As an internationally respected DJ and producer, Revolution's skills have privileged the tracks of many Hip-Hop luminaries. Those skills were optimally displayed on his three critically-acclaimed solo and collaborative albums including R2K, King Of The Decks, and In 12s We Trust. DJ Revolution has also gained the esteem of fans from around the globe, as a renowned DJ, Producer and Editor of the highly-influential "The Wake Up Show" with Tech & Sway (MTV). Through more than two decades of success as a DJ, Producer, and TV and film scorer DJ Revolution never forgot those early years and the promise of Hip-Hop.

Together, DJ Revolution, Styliztik Jones (hailing from LA, CA), and KB Imean (hailing from Queens, NY) represent one of the first genuine new rap groups to emerge in a generation. Not just another disparate crew, but a true collective of teachers and learners working to lead a people, a movement. Encouraged by the iconic men who fought for the every-man during a different time using different tools, the trio reverentially took on the moniker Malcolm & Martin as a siren call announcing new leaders armed with new tools to fight for modern-day liberation.

Fresh off the release of their latest, already heralded mixtape ("Malcolm and Martin were...Criminal Minded", a 2010 re-working of the seminal album released by BDP in 1987) which was released in November, the trio returns to wake-up sleeping Hip-Hop fans with their debut LP, DJ Revolution Presents Malcolm and Martin "Life Doesn't Frighten Me", which will be released on 2-1-2011 on SoulSpazm Records.

It's a progressive throwback. Its Hip-Hop music for the intelligent listener. Something you've never heard before, that feels like something you have loved your whole life. laments DJ Revolution on the group's debut LP. Further validating Revolution's claims, a who's who of Hip-Hop luminaries have already voiced their overwhelming support for Malcolm & Martin; including DJ Premier, MTV's Sway, Evidence, Statik Selektah, Masta Ace, Grammy-award winning Producer Dawuan Parker and Marco Polo who also produced the duo's lead-single "Movement Music."

No gimmicks included, Malcolm & Martin's debut effort is a classic throwback that tackles real topics that are frequently glossed over in today's urban music climate. Yet, perhaps, KB Imean sums up the group's direction more eloquently, as he states "Life Doesn't Frighten Me is our journey through real topics that are seldom talked about and or discussed in this day and age of Hip-Hop. We provide vivid commentary over gritty production; which is certain to provoke thoughts and opinions."

Included is the first single, "Movement Music" (produced by Marco Polo) from DJ Revolution Presents Malcolm and Martin "Life Doesn't Frighten Me":
<http://hulkshare.com/a78cyzisl706>

Tracklisting and credits for Malcolm & Martin's "Life Doesn't Frighten Me":

- 1.) "Welcome To The Movement"
- 2.) "Bamboozled"
- 3.) "Aint Seen Nuthin Yet"
- 4.) "Lunchtyme Interlude"
- 5.) "Lunchtyme Ciphers"
- 6.) "Movement Music" (produced by Marco Polo)
- 7.) "Sista Big Butt"
- 8.) "Do It Again" (Intro)
- 9.) "Do It Again"
- 10.) "Win Lose"
- 11.) "Sell Like An Ace"
- 12.) "Hustle"
- 13.) "Blak Koffee"
- 14.) "Heritage"
- 15.) "Bear Witness"
- 16.) "Against The Wall"
- 17.) "Thank God"

Twitter

Facebook

Homepage