

No One-The Substance

Noni Spitz and Dae One are No One and the California emcee/producers have released their first full length album called The Substance. Both artists have spent time working behind the scenes with California notables like Ice Cube and Crooked I. They say The Substance is about making music that has a purpose. The project is available through iTunes and their Bandcamp page.