

Omar-The Man

[vimeo]29189012[/vimeo]

During the earlier part of the summer Omar walked down a street in Copehagen and sang his new song “The Man.” Thankfully Kristian Mathiassen directed, shot and edited this piece of true live singing on the street. This year the singer has been nominated for a MOBO and you can participate in the voting here. Omar is working on his seventh album but no release date has been announced.
