Kellie Sae said she was showing a more brazen side of herself in this video for "Use Me " and she did not lie. Sae and her Afro-boho crew rock out in a condemned building while she gives the middle-finger to the lover who broke her heart. She wants fans to go to her Facebook page until September 9th to tell her what person, place or thing they want removed from their lives. Everyone who shares something will automatically be entered into a contest to win a $200 Spa & Wellness Gift Card by Spa Week and a phonecall from Kelli. There will also be five gift baskets with Kelli's favorite things and 20 autographed copies of her Pure CD.
