

Hair Stylist to the Stars, Dr. Boogie Says “Hold It” with New All Natural Product Line

Hollywood, CA – Celebrity hair stylist Dr. Boogie is well known for getting his “mane” business on. With a reputation for teasing the tresses of Hollywood’s finest, including Vivica Fox, Debbie Allen, Kym Whitley and even VH1’s “Love and Hip Hop Atlanta’s” own Mimi Faust, the hair doctor is now offering his branded prescription to the masses in an effort to alleviate all hair woes. With the design and creation of a full line of chemical-free, organic, all natural skin and hair products, Dr. Boogie presents a diagnosis designed to rejuvenate and invigorate men and women alike. “Hold It,” a finishing pomade; “Bionic,” a hair and scalp oil treatment; and “Pure,” a shea butter based lotion, are just a sampling of the solutions in the doctor’s medicine bag.

“Ideally I want everyone to just know the feeling of fabulous. I have always said, when you look good you feel good. With the launch of my new products I’m now able to share on an even wider scale the remedies I have used for years with my celebrity clientele,” offers Dr. Boogie. “My ‘Dr. Boogie’s Do-It-Yourself Clip-On Hairpieces’ enjoyed tremendous success. With my all natural product line, I am expanding my brand to fully include men and women while at the same time honoring the planet with my organics.”

Celebrity Hair Stylist Dr.
Boogie’s All Natural Hair

and Skin Line

Dr. Boogie and his product line is featured in the October issue of Juicy Magazine. The two-page feature discusses his behind-the-scene hair techniques on clients Mimi Faust, Toccara Jones and Vivica Fox.

In addition to his product launch, Boogie has been busy working on several television productions. He styled Debbie Allen for her recent appearance on Fox-TV's "So You Think You Can Dance"; Vivica Fox for her upcoming series, the syndicated show "Mr. Box Office" and Lifetime's "Prank My Mom"; and he was the lead stylist for hair and make-up on "BET PRESENTS: BAD25 – THE SHORT FILMS OF MICHAEL JACKSON."

Fill a prescription for Dr. Boogie's new line featuring "Hold It" at <http://www.BoogieSecrets.com> or book an appointment with him at Fame Salon at 11288 Ventura Blvd., in Studio City, CA by calling (818) 974-9773.

.