Janelle Monae's video for "Q.U.E.E.N." is a mini movie of black and white that begins with Monae's placement in the living museum of Project Q.U.E.E.N. She, Badu and Monae's band are frozen rebels who come back to life with music as their weapon. The Black sci-fi crew of funky dancers support Badu and Monae's freedom/womanhood stance that reminds you that "the booty don't lie."
