

NYC Tonight: Giant Step Presents #OFFLINE with Q-Tip (@QtiptheAbstract) Every Wednesday night at Output

This week, Giant Step's #Offline series continues with Q-Tip who has been throwing down for the past three weeks. DJ Kamal will be opening the night again with his unique blend of soulful sounds ranging from, Deep House, Hip Hop, Dub, Afrobeat, Soul classics, Salsa and beyond. "The concept of Offline is a party that brings all elements of New York club culture together with great music, diverse people and no bottle service," states Q-Tip. "I started the party last year as a monthly at Irving Plaza with great success, but now I'm happy to have found a home at Output in Williamsburg and can't wait to play my music on their house sound system." Maurice Bernstein, President/CEO of Giant Step adds, "This is the first weekly we have done since the original Giant Step parties over a decade ago, and only Q-Tip could have persuaded me to do it. I'm really excited to see it grow and flourish."
