

Tyrese-Doing Dumb Sh*t

[youtube id="LvnGG6Cpdz4"]

Tyrese has countered recent accusations about his integrity in the entertainment business with one of the funniest responses ever. In addition to clarifying the circumstances around the casting of Baby Boy, the singer/actor advises his detractors to look up the word 'ether' while he walks around his home showing off his material accomplishments. But the best part of his video is the backing track that repeats "Dumb Sh*t" while the camera makes moves reserved for a music video. Tyrese was defending his name but the song could be a theme for anyone who has had their reputation attacked. One can only hope he will turn the piece into a full production and add it to a new release.
