

Living Colour On Tour Series Show

Living Colour are the latest to appear in the On Tour concert series which films artists performing at various East Coast venues and interweaves the show with interview footage. The band performed at the World Cafe in Philadelphia and Corey Glover discusses their origins, the rise of “Cult Of Personality” and their intensity as a group going forward.