Reality star Sundy Carter from “Basketball Wives L.A.” will host the evening and dance troupe B.More Production’s “Wet Dreams” will open the show. The night is sponsored by PinkPoleParty.org Pole-Fitness Mega-Center, a newly opened pole, aerial and dance fitness facility dedicated to raising awareness and funds for breast cancer prevention and cure. Doors open at 8:00 p.m. and the show starts at 9:30 p.m. Serra's Dine and Dance is located at 12449 Ventura Boulevard in Studio City.

With major film releases like "Magic Mike," "Chocolate City," and "American Bad Boy" propelling interest in male exotic dance entertainment, Dr. Boogie has successfully created an atmosphere where women can enjoy themselves in a safe, comfortable and upscale location. "Los Angeles is riddled with gentleman's clubs and bikini bars," cites Boogie, "but the women have no place to go. After listening to hundreds of my clients express their needs as I was doing their hair, I knew it was time to change the game. I am taking 'ladies night' to an entire new level!"
