JAGMAC is a pop group comprised of 6 siblings from Baltimore, Maryland. Their pop style and family status is reminiscent of '80's group The Jets. They count the Jackson 5 and the Black Eyed Peas as their biggest influences. "Get Your Groove Back" is the follow-up to their first single, "Existence" which started their online following earlier this year. They're finishing their debut album due for an Autumn release this year and have worked with noted pop songwriters Bryan Todd, Lauren Christy, Pam Sheyne, Benj Heard and Mike Krompass. In addition to making music each member holds a Black Belt in Tae Kwon Do stemming from their father's teachings and his ownership of a martial arts school. They are scheduled to perform August 15th at the Total Access Live Festival in the UK.
