[youtube id="2p6jqZE-fPw"]

Ibeyi released their debut album in February and the twin sisters who sing in Yoruba and English showed themselves to be in a spectrum of R&B, pop and electronic. "Exhibit Diaz" is their version of Jay Electronica's "Better In Tune With The Infinite" and the lyric video has the camera focused on scanning the song's words from a 45 on a turntable. They are on tour until the end of the year appearing in Europe, Canada and the United States.
