

KrisWonTwo - Love Need You Featuring Omar

Danish producer Kriswontwo collaborates with Omar on the dubstep-influenced "Love, Need You." The song will be on Kriswontwo's debut album CEREMONI coming out September 14th on SomeOthaShip Connect. On working with Omar KrisWonTwo had this to say: "I asked Omar if I could play him some music—he completely felt it. When the artist arrived, Omar had written and recorded this whole track, and we went on to lace the chorus that was intended to be recorded that day."
