

Throwback: Mad Kap-Proof Is In The Pudding

Mad Kap hailed from Los Angeles and consisted of group members Coke, Motif and trumpet player Dr. Soose. "Proof Is In The Pudding" earned them one-hit wonder status from their Look Ma Duke, No Hands lone album. They are the only rap group to have a trumpet player and Dr. Soose's live playing enhanced their boom-bap at a time when jazz breakbeats were used frequently in hip-hop. King Tee's DJ Broadway exclusively produced the album that was one of the first to come out on Loud Records. "Proof Is In The Pudding" was the follow-up to their first single, "Da Whole Kit & Kaboodle." Coke later formed the group The Colored Section with DJ Homicide.
