

Ms. Lauryn Hill, The Roots, A$AP Rocky, Janelle Monae & Wondaland and More Perform At The 2015 ONE Musicfest This Weekend

This Saturday, September 12th, ONE Musicfest, in partnership with Live Nation, brings a variety of urban maverick music legends and contemporaries for a unique festival experience through music. Organizers have meticulously curated performances that include Ms. Lauryn Hill, The Roots, A$AP Rocky, Wale, Janelle Monae & Wondaland, Ryan Leslie, Raekwon & Ghostface, The Internet, Raury, SZA and “Southern Legends” Scarface, 8Ball & MJG, Big KRIT and many more. The festival takes place in Atlanta, GA at Aaron’s Amphitheater At Lakewood on Saturday, September 12, 2015.

One Musicfest, in its sixth year, will take place on multiple stages and serve as the ultimate mashup of innovative musicians and DJs with over eleven hours of non-stop music. The festival will feature over 25 of the hottest global DJs whose music crosses over all spectrums with local vendors, games, and interactive activities. One Musicfest is the only place to see this roster of incredible acts join together for One purpose – to witness a wide variety of sounds, from rock to hip-hop, electro, reggae, funk, disco, house, alternative and soul while having your musical senses stimulated.

Founded by Jason Carter, ONE Musicfest has been one of Southeast’s largest home-grown, musical arts festival to date that brings together over 10,000 plus attendees. Carter has brought Atlanta music lovers the best and the brightest urban alternative acts performing in a welcoming, hospitable setting, creating an atmosphere where everyone can enjoy and discover music.
