

Jam Master Jay's Foundation For Music Presents First Annual Hip Hop Lip Sync Battle

Following their Spring 2015 event, Fam Jam, that raised funds for The Felix Organization, Little Kids Rock, and Count Basie MS 72, the Jam Master Jay Foundation For Music is back with their first annual Hiphop Lip Sync Battle. Thrown in honor of the foundation's namesake, the late Jason Mizell better known as Jam Master Jay of legendary hip-hop trio Run DMC, Hiphop Lip Sync Battle will host top legal, finance, and music executives to compete in a battle of "MC Skills" to benefit a local NYC arts program.

Going down Tuesday, November 10th at NYC's Meatpacking District outpost Subrosa at 7pm, the Battle will include minute long MC battles that will finish in a head-to-head finalists championship round. Join some of the hottest artists and industry executives as they reverse rolls. For once, the celebrities will walk the room as the corporate executives battle one another lip-sync-style. Judged by the crowd, contestants will go to ridiculous lengths to win your vote. Tickets to attend the event at $50 and benefit The Jam Master Jay Foundation for Music. Surprise guests and elements are not to be missed. Get your tickets and more information here: <http://www.jammasterjay.org/JMJfoundation.html>
