

Jimi Hendrix's London Flat Turned Into Permanent Exhibition

[youtube id="0nIbQJ53J8A"] The London flat where Jimi Hendrix lived between 1968-69 has been turned into a permanent exhibition. The living space has been recreated to look the way it did when Hendrix was there with the addition of one of his rare guitars. One room is dedicated to the record collection he owned at the time. John Ridley's All Is By My Side, starring Andre 3000 as Hendrix, focused on this time period in Hendrix's life.
