

All Def Movie Awards

[youtube id="ETgAP_UXhVA"] Last night while the Oscars were being broadcast, the All Def Movie Awards were streamed via the Fusion cable network website Fusion.net. Tony Rock, Chris Rock's brother, hosted the event that had categories like Best Bad Muh F**ka, Most Helpful White Person and Best Black Survivor. The All Def Movie Awards is Russell Simmons' answer to the #OscarsSoWhite issue that has been talked about since Jada Pinkett Smith made a video discussing her need to boycott the Oscars this year because of a lack of diversity.
