[youtube id="JEJ3o4khzQw"] Mara Hruby unveils the second part of her "Cry Me A River" video and she's a lonely traveller driving and reflecting on a painful relationship with her guitar for a companion. "Cry Me A River" is from Hruby's Archaic Rapture EP. Hruby says, "This is a video to remind young women that we can get past any obstacle relating to matters of the heart if we simply allow our natural emotions to flow instead of denying ourselves that needed process to heal."
