

BADBADNOTGOOD-Lavender Feat. Kaytranada

IV by BADBADNOTGOOD BADBADNOTGOOD's IV album is coming out July 8th and today they share their "Lavender" single featuring fellow Canadian Kaytranada. The band had this to say about the song: "We made Lavender amongst many other songs and samples with Kaytranada in our home studio 'Studio 69'. Kay started the idea as a beat with our drum breaks and some synth melodies. Then we recut the drums and synth to formulate a song with more sections. Kay came back to Toronto and gave us that hot lead melody as well as percussion and we all finalized the arrangement. It's an incredible honor to call Kay a close friend of ours; he is a talent like no other."
