

Listen To Unreleased Music From Prince At Versace Fashion Show

[youtube id="PeEckPoEGL8"] The debut of unheard music from Prince begins with 11 minutes of new music heard during the Versace show at Milan Fashion Week on June 20th. Prince was friends with Donatella Versace and would send her music on a regular basis. The mostly instrumental piece is guitar-heavy with light vocals from Prince and the compelling energy of the music seems to make the models walk with more fierceness.
