

Beyonce, Alicia Keys, Queen Latifah & Others In PSA: 23 Ways You Could Be Killed If You Are Black In America

[youtube id="U_VaNhI4CLo"] Beyonce, Alicia Keys, Queen Latifah, and other celebrities narrate the various ways Black can die in America by using the examples of Eric Garner, Oscar Grant III and the too-long list of those who have died at the hands of the police. Talib Kweli references Grant, who was played by Michael B. Jordan in the Ryan Coogler-directed Fruitvale Station, as an example of a Black person dying while taking a commuter train. The We Are Here Movement produced the video.
