

Watch Kyle Bent Spread Good Will Around NYC In His Video For Rotten Apple Seeds

[youtube id="iFPZWL3vTIc"] Kyle Bent and friends spread goodness around New York City by giving away apples to strangers in his "Rotten Apple Seeds" video. The Massachusetts native is getting ready to release his Complex Simplicity album on September 19th. Bent's 2014 "Mind Control" video introduced him to the public via some of the most influential online hip-hop media outlets. The attention he received for "Mind Control" and his mixtapes have allowed him to open for MURs, Big Gigantic and others. Complex Simplicity will be released on Denver's Made In The Shade Records.
