

Dave Chappelle Hosting SNL With A Tribe Called Quest As Musical Guests

Dave Chappelle will make his debut as the host of Saturday Night Live on November 12th and A Tribe Called Quest are the musical guests. It will be Chappelle's first time hosting the show and ATCQ will be there in support of their sixth and last studio album after its release on Friday the 11th. We Got It From Here...Thank You For Your Service is special because it is coming out after Phife Dawg's passing earlier this year and fans did not know the group had any more recordings. It is the band's first new release in almost 20 years.
