

Noname Announces U.S. Tour

Noname released her mixtape Telefone this past summer and it was a critical success that allowed her to tour as the opening act for Lauryn Hill. The Chicago poet collaborated with Raury<sup>Â</sup> and Eryn Allen Kane among others on the project that was recognized by fans and the press. In January, she will embark on her first headlining tour which will make 21 stops around the country.

