

Kaytranada Remixes Latrelle's House Party For The Club

Kaytranada has started 2017 with a club-ready edit of Latrelle's "House Party" single which came out in 2001. The longtime Neptunes collaborator's album Dirty Girl, Wrong Girl, Bad Girl never came out but "House Party" was released as a single. Kaytranada erases the more melodic pop elements of the song with synthetic horns, a classic house beat with drumbreaks by BadBadNotGood. Kaytranada introduced his interest in Latrelle's single on his 0.001% collection of beats and loops that he gave away on Soundcloud a few months ago.
