

Macy Gray Responds To Trump Era With Unifying Message Of White Man Video

[youtube id="AcwrTuK7vZA"] Macy Gray's "White Man" single is a reflection of the Trump Era's strong feelings of division. Gray sings about being hated by a white man for no reason while two girls, one Black and the other white start dance together with noticeable distance between them. By the end of video, the girls stand together as friends. Gray is releasing a new album in the summer of 2017 and will go on a tour of Europe in March.
