

Kendrick Lamar Alludes To New Album With Video For Humble

[youtube id="tvTRZJ-4EyI"] Kendrick Lamar leaked "The Heart Part 4" last week and the song mentioned April 7th as being an important date. Two days ago a supposed tracklisting for his new project leaked via Pastebin. The video for "Humble" recreates The Last Supper among an array of fast-moving scenes that feature Lamar as a success with money and a spiritual official in a Catholic robe. Some fans have determined that "Humble" is referring to Big Sean. The release of the video for "Humble" seems to confirm that an official album will come out next week.
