

Steve Lacy Just Wants You To Listen To His Moron Single

Steve Lacy's Demo EP is one of the best to arrive in a long time. The Internet guitarist put together six songs and debuted the infectious "Red" before the project was released. "Moron" is a song that was considered for the EP but did not make the final tracklisting. Lacy sings about wanting his ex-girlfriend back over a low-key arrangement that gradually gets hotter with the repetitious changes in the song.
