Maysa has unexpectedly prepared her 13th studio album, Love Is A Battlefield and she has covered the single by Pat Benatar. Maysa has connected with longtime collaborator Chris “Big Dog” Davis and producers The Heavyweights and Jason Miles to create an album of time-worn classics and new music from Luther Vandross and Big Sean. Maysa commented on the surprise of covering Benatar’s song:

“The reason why I chose ‘Love Is A Battlefield’ is that it has a lot to do with the way the world is today and all of the things we are going through as a people. As humans, we are surrounded by people who are not choosing love first. People are choosing money over love and compassion. To me, ‘Love Is A Battlefield’ is just that, a battle to allow love to reign over everything.”

Maysa’s Love Is A Battlefield will be released May 26th on Shanachie Entertainment.
