

Watch David Banner Make Paper For Rhythm Roulette

[youtube id="HS_1tTnoYQ0"] David Banner visits Atlanta's Wax N Facts to the three customary records to make a beat for Mass Appeal's Rhythm Roulette series. Banner and his crew including GensuÂ Dean, Burroughs and Tricky LT 45 take The Meters, Gladys Knight & The Pips and Chicago to create the anti-materialism southern soul of "Paper." Banner was sure to explain the significance of using samples in rap because of the producers' inability to pay for musicians and studio time. "Paper" is the first song created from the Rhythm Roulette episodes to get a formal release.
