

Gabriel GarzÃ³n-Montano Gives Tiny Desk Concert

Gabriel GarzÃ³n-Montano went to the office of NPR's Tiny Desk Concert and performed music from his Jardin debut. He chose to perform with just a piano and it creates a closer connection between him and the audience. Jardin is self-governing soul that is coy in its emotional expression. The Stones Throw artist follows his own muse in the fashion of an R&B outlier. Watch his four-song set and see him on tour this summer.
