

Tyka Nelson Releases End Of The Road Video In Tribute To Prince

[youtube id="oWwLTuCXo-k"] Tyka Nelson recorded "End Of The Road" as a dedication to her late brother Prince. The video features rare photos of Prince of his life before he became famous. Nelson stated that the video is a final birthday present:

"After Prince passed I wanted to give him one final birthday present and I decided to fulfill his wish, and record this song at Paisley Park. "This song poses the question "is this the End of The Road?" and my answer is I don't think so! I will see all three of my beautiful family members someday again."

Yesterday would've been Prince's 59th birthday.
