

Declaime                      Feat.                      Blu: Internally Yours Produced By Georgia Anne Muldrow

Declaime and Blu have collaborated on the world-weary “Internally Yours” produced by Georgia Anne Muldrow. The westÂ coast emcees share their observations about greed, mind control and police brutality. “Internally Yours” is on Declaime’s forthcoming Young Spirit, his first album since 2015’s Southside Story. Aloe Blacc and Saul Williams are two of the featured artists on Young Spirit.Â Declaime released a statement about the meaning of “Eternally Yours,”

“Internally Yours’ isÂ about inner truth. I’m talking about all the cats running this world to see that they are just like us.Â Their heart beats just like us.Â The whole album is about how the media and government, food messing with the kid’s heads and their young spirits.Â Blu’s speaking on some truths he had locked inside of him.”

Young Spirit gets an official release August 18th.
