

Talib Kweli Honors Bresha Meadows In She's My Hero Produced By Oh No

Talib Kweli brings light to Bresha Meadows' story with the Oh No-produced "She's My Hero." Meadows fatally shot her father last year at age 14 after she and mother were abused by him for years. Kweli was inspired by her story and it made him question the definition of a hero and heÂ wanted to use his platform to bring attention to Meadows and dysfunction in all families.
