

Tricky Premieres New Single Running Wild From Ununiform

Tricky's ununiform is approaching its September release and today he shares "Running Wild" featuring vocalist Mina Rose. "Running Wild" is about the unpredictability of youth and this is what Rose attributes the lyric, "came from the lost child within me." Tricky will go on tour in October after ununiform's September 22nd release. The album is Tricky's first independent venture and he circles back to his sound from the '90s with old faces like Francesca Belmonte and new artists like Rose.
