

Tall Black Guy Acknowledges Michael Jackson's Birthday With Heaven Is The Prize

Today would've been Michael Jackson's 59th birthday and Tall Black Guy chose to remember him with a flip of Jackson's "I Can't Help It" that he calls "Heaven Is The Prize 8.523BPM." The title actually comes from a line from "I Can't Help It" and maybe TBG is implying that's Jackson's new home. The beat is short but memorable and it keeps up TBG's track record of excellence.
