

G.I.: In Love With You Featuring Keke Wyatt

Contemporary Gospel group G.I. had a breakthrough this year with their single "Pray And Don't Worry." The Richmond, Virginia-based trio has a sound comprised of trap music, R&B and hip-hop. They are getting for the release of their Winning album on September 15th with the unveiling of their song "In Love With You" featuring Keke Wyatt. The straightforward love song stylistically expresses itself like old school soul more than anything else. Group member Branden Anderson commented on the song in a press release:

*"In Love With You" speaks about love and the power it possesses.
It gives our listeners a dual message, speaking about the love of God as well as the love of a significant other. The addition of Keke Wyatt really put the icing on the cake. She definitely reaches that Urban crowd that we're trying to reach with our music so it was the perfect fit and she killed it vocally!!"*

Winning will be released on Shanachie.
