

Little Richard Gives Rare Interview To 3ABN

[youtube id="0XldBnWFjB8"] Little Richard gave a rare interview to the 3ABN Network last month. The interview on the Christian show is about Richard's religion and he alludes to a faith-based change in his personal life. The 84-year old rock and roll legend who once gave Jimi Hendrix a job has always talked about having a fluid sexuality. He appears without his famous make-up and wig but his charisma is unchanged and he still gives a lot of music history while talking about his faith. The stories about his early beginnings as a poor Black kid in the south who got his first break with Sister Rosetta Tharpe and living through segregation makes one wonder when will there be another Little Richard movie. The interview starts at 22:09.
